

The Standard

The original peanut butter and jelly sandwich just like mom used to make, but with Matt's twist – a slice of cheese between the peanut butter and jelly, to keep the flavors distinct, differentiated, savored individually, creating a deeper, more complex experience of the standard comfort food.

(2) slices of Wonder bread, classic white

Skippy or Peter Pan creamy peanut butter

Welch's or Smucker's concord grape jelly

(1) slice of Kraft American cheese, individually wrapped

After applying peanut butter to one slice, jelly to the other, sandwich the cheese between before assembly.

Cutting in half or quarters is optional, to individual preference, if so, on the diagonal is recommend for visual appeal.

Paired with a glass of milk or natural spring water.
